adies' Guild Holds Well Attended Sale at Guild Rooms of St. Andrew's

A Christmas sale of cake, candy, aprons and fancy articles was suc<sup>2</sup> cessfully conducted by the Ladies' guild in the guild rooms of St. Andrew's church on Central avenue Friday. It began in the afternoon and continued throughout the evening. Many seized the opportunity to secure pretty Christmas gifts for friends and those in charge were kept busy showing and selling articles. The room was very prettily decorated for the sale, many streamers adorning the walls, pictures and ceiling. The apron-table was in charge of Mrs. Benjamin charge of the mystery tree.
